MAY WIPE IT OFF THE EARTH

Few people here know that you can cure that dread American disease, Rheumatism, with just common everyday drugs found in any drug store. The prescription is so simple that any one can prepare it at home at small cost. It is made up as follows: Get from any good prescription pharmacy Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. These are all simple ingredients, making an absolutely harmless home remedy at little cost.

Rheumatism, as every one knows, is a symptom of deranged kidneys. It is a condition produced by the failure of the kidneys to properly filter or strain from the blood the uric acid and other matter, which if not eradicated, either in the urine or through the skin pores remains in the blood, decomposes and forms about the joints and muscles, causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

This prescription is said to be a splendid healing, cleansing and invigorating tonic to the kidneys, and gives almost immediate relief in all forms of bladder and urinary troubles and backache. Mch. 18.

Obituary.

Charles Julian was born March 29, 1831, died March 5, 1909. Aged 77 years, 11 months and 6 days.

He was married to Margaret Carpenter October 16, 1860. To this union were born five children, two of which preceded him to the haven of rest.

Mr. Julian became a christian in early life and united with the church before marriage. In recent years his name was placed upon the church book at Buena Vista.

He has been a great sufferer at intervals for years, but he was brave, patient and kind through it all until last Friday night the angel of death rode silently into the sick chamber and released the spirit so long a prisoner in the suffering body.

He was a good husband and father, a kind and obliging neighbor, always ready to help those in want.

He leaves to mourn, a wife, three sons, one adopted daughter, 15 grandchildren, two brothers, two sisters and a host of friends. God grant that they may all prepare to meet him where there is no death.

There is no death, an angel form walks over the earth with silent tread. He bids our dear loved ones away. And then we call them dead.

Funeral services were held at Bethany Church, conducted by Rev. T. M. Ricketts, using for a text, Isaiah, 3rd. chapter and 10th. verse. Interment was made in Bethany cemetery.

Obituary

John W. Odell, son of William and Hannah Odell, was born in Hocking Co., O., Sept. 4, 1855, departed this life March 7, 1909, aged 53 years, 6 months and 3 days. He was united in marriage with Elizabeth Blackburn, Sept. 10, 1876. He leaves a wife, two sisters, one brother and many friends to mourn their loss. Brother Odell lived a consistent christian life, having united with the M. E. church near his old home in Hocking Co. in 1875. After coming to Pike Co. in 1879 he renewed his membership with the M. E. church at Latham, this organization having failed he joined the C. U. church and continued a zealous christian worker. He was a useful man in the community and strictly true to his convictions. He was also a faithful and honored member of the I. O. O. F., No. 834 of Latham, O.

We hear from our old home, our loved one and lay him in his lowly bed, Where the guardian angels watch over him.

He sleeps now, but he is not dead. Above thy dear form will the flowers bloom.

The birds sweetly sing 'round thy grave, The wind sweep and sigh its low music, Through the grass that above thee shall wave.

Though our home without thee be lonely, But as gently we can but try To await the dear Masters summons, Then we'll meet in the sweet by and by.

Sleep on now where we will leave thee, With the beautiful sky bending o'er, While thy spirit is singing Hosannas On that shining bright heavenly shore.

Mrs. Willis, Dead

(Beverly Dispatch.)

Obituary of Candace B. Willis nee Leggett.

Candace Buell Leggett was the eldest of nine children of Wm. and Catherine Leggett, deceased.

She was born on the old Leggett farm in Palmer township, Washington county, Ohio, January 8, 1824.

Her childhood passed upon the farm without special incident save that she knew and shared in the toil and hardships of those early days.

By the time she was 16 years old she was qualified to teach school and for several years taught in the district schools.

She was married to James Willis Jr., July 17, 1844. By this marriage she became the mother of nine children, four sons and five daughters. Four of her children and her husband preceded her to the Beyond.

Nearly her entire life was spent in Washington county.

Her's was a life of toil and care, for she lived and reared her family in those days when but few luxuries fell to the lot of the common people. She spent her early life for, and with her family.

Just after her children had gone out into homes of their own, the husband and father was stricken with a deadly malady which in a few days ended his earthly life, April 18, 1885, since which time, she has lived among her children, recognized the home of her daughter Mrs. Kate Bower as her home, where she died February 25, 1909, at the ripe age of 85 years, 1 month and 17 days.

She became a christian in early life and for over forty years belonged to the United Brethren church.

Her faith was strong and clear. "Thus Saith the Lord" from the bible, was to her sufficient. A promise was to her as a bond from Jehovah. Her hope of "Eternal Life" through Jesus Christ was bright and as simple as the trust of a little child in its mother.

She leaves behind one brother, R. P. Leggett of Palmer town, two sisters, Miss Olive Leggett and Mrs. Edith Alexander, both of Lowell.

Three sons survive her: Rev. J. W. Willis, pastor of the U. B. church at Logan; G. M. Willis, of Watertown, and S. C. Willis of Olive Green; also two daughters, Mrs. May Heckle of Springfield, and Mrs. Katie Power of Waterford, at whose home she fell asleep.

She also leaves twenty-five grand-children and thirty-seven great grand-children.

The funeral services were held on February 27th, at the Pleasant View church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. R. McClurkin.

Interment was made in the Waterford Cemetery, by the side of her husband.

CARD OF THANKS—We wish to extend to our friends and neighbors our thanks for their kindness and sympathy shown during the sickness and death of our dear mother, Mrs. Candace Willis.

HER CHILDREN.
